- Alliances between the various groups of insurgents have been concluded 1. in Toungoo, Penzada, Yemethin, and Pagwe Districts.
- In Toungoo District, the Burma Communist Party (BCP) has been active in the distribution of propaganda leaflets simed at uniting the different insurgent groups within the Prople's Democratic Front (PDF). These leaflets were entitled: Corcentrate your fight against the main enemy - let us unite with the forces of the Kewthulay Tarens, Comunist Party (Purna) (CP(B)) and the People's Volunteer Organization (PVO). Meanwhile, the BCP has concluded a local ciliance with the Karen Mational Defense Organization (KMDO)", and on 9 January a joint force of KMDO and BCP insurgents, 400 strong, launched en unsuccessful at ack against Pyu.
- In Henzada District, a leaflet entitled Stop the Burmese Karen Communal Warfare was given wide distribution in the area of Kyangin (95-15; 18-20). The leeflet was issued on behalf of the PDF and was signed by AUNG TUN and SHU TIN for the PVO, and TIM AUNG, PHONE "YINT, and NYUNT MAUNG for the BCP. Evidence of KWOO military collaboration with the FCP elsewhere in Henzada District took the form of attacks carried out by combined forces against the village of Chaukywa (95-12; 17-42) and Danbi (95-16; 17-42) during early January.
- At Yenangyaung, in Pagwe District, leaflets issued over the joint signature of MYO FYHIT, leader of Unper Purma PVO, and YE NI HTU, leader of Upper Burma CP(B), claimed that their two parties had agreed to combine forces to fight against the Government and urged that all insurgents who professed enti-Imperialist views and a Leftist Ideology should unite. In the same District, the PVO joined forces with BCP insurgents in an attack against Thityarauk (95-15; 19-57) on 6 January.
- In Vamethin District, a leaflet entitled: Annihilate the PVO leafers of Bo LA YATING's clique wherever they are found was issued in the name of the Revolutionary PVO of Lower Rurma Sub-Headquarters. The leaflet urged the PVO to join the PDF and claimed that victory for the revolutionary forces would be achieved within two years. ** comment. The BCP's policy of securing KNDO collaboration has been reflected in numerous recent reports and one report refers to instructions issued within the Party to encourage Karen-Burmese friendship. A current report concerns the formation of a Karen-Burmese Friendship Organization in Pegu District. 25X1A
